

Household* Hazardous Waste Clean Up Event

LOCATION: MADRID St. Malachy Church DATE: Saturday, October 2, 2010
TIME: 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
COST: FREE!!

ACCEPTED

MATERIAL:

stain and varnish
paint remover and thinner gasoline and kerosene windshield washer solution aerosol cleaners
drain and oven cleaners metal polishes and rust removers oil and lead-based paints ammonia-based cleaners
wallpaper remover
roofing tar
petroleum-based adhesives glues, caulk, contact cement and resins fertilizers, pesticides and weed killers rat, mouse and gopher poison swimming pool chemicals rechargeable batteries
cellular telephones
used oil filters

NON-ACCEPTED

MATERIAL:

latex paint
used motor oil
antifreeze
lead-acid batteries
needles
ammunition
explosives
asbestos radioactive material
fire extinguishers
compressed gas cylinders
farm chemicals

Any Questions? Call:

1-888-603-CREW

(1-888-603-2739)

Sponsored by the Boone County Landfill and the City of Madrid Program coordination and funding provided by the Boone County Landfill Program operated by the Metro Waste Authority

* NOTE: This program is available for household hazardous waste generated in the home. Businesses, workplaces and farming operations are NOT eligible to use this program. Please call the Boone County Landfill at 515.433.0591 for disposal options for hazardous waste generated from businesses, workplaces and farming operations.